Soroptimists Hear Talk On State Growth Problems

The principal of Robert E. Peary Junior High School in Gardena, Soroptimist Frances Stephens, gave members of her club a most interesting, amusing, and informative report on her recent trips to conventions held in Fresno and Washington, D.C. She pointed out that while we ate lunch the population of California was increasing by 150 each hour of the day as there are 450 births and 300 deaths per hour in this state. This growth has caused a terrific problem for the school system. Los Angeles has tried and has done a wonderful job keeping up by opening a classroom every half hour. It has been hard to impress upon the voters of the great necessity as money to build had to come from taxes or bonds.

Another problem across the whole nation, she reported, is the shortage of teachers and told of what efforts are being put forth to obtain more teachers. She spoke also of the foreign students and of their desires for us to understand the problems of their people and countries.

Miss Stephan closed her speech by quoting Fred Smith, past president of the Gruen Watch Co. and one of the speakers at the Washington convention: "Wait to worry" and "Before we criticize, be sure we have a foolproof remedy."

President Margaret Neff presided at this regular luncheon meeting of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club held April 22 at the Palms in Torrance. The speaker was pre-

AT SERVICES

The 30 members of the newly organized Key Club at the Torrance High School attended sunrise services at the Green Hills cemetery. Following the services, the boys went en masse to Huff's for breakfast, according to Tommy Quaggin, Key Club president.

RELATIVES HERE FOR EASTER WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howey, 308 Calle de Andalucia, had a full house during Easter week with their son and daughter and their respective families visiting.

On Palm Sunday they had a large family dinner, including all their guests. Visiting from George Air Force Base near Victorville was their daughter and her husband, Capt. and Mrs. Cecil Crabbe and their sons, Tommy, Steven and Mark.

The other guests were Mr. Howey's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Joiner from Los Angeles; his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howey, and Mrs. Robert Layman and her son David, all of Montebello. Mrs. Layman is Mr. Howey's niece. Coming from Harbor City was the Howey's son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. James Howey and their children, Michael and Cheri.

On Monday, April 15, Tommy had his fifth birthday which he got to celebrate with his grandparents this year. There was a small party for Tommy and the family. The Crabbe family returned to their home on Thursday.

On Easter Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James Howey and their children, Michael and Cheri, returned to spend the day.

ented by Program Chairman Frances Dimitri. The next club meeting will be dinner and a jewelry auction April 29, 7 p.m., at the home of Pearl Groot, 1147 W. 159th St., Gardena. Mary Lemberger will be co-hostess.

Art Group Sets Friday Meeting

Torrance Art Group will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, April 26, at 8:30 p.m., McMaster Park, 3624 W. 174th St.

A color-sound film on Matisse, famous French modern artist, will be shown.

A short business meeting will precede the film. A nominating committee for selection of officers and club constitution will be selected.

As usual, members are asked to bring in one piece of recently done art-work for the discussion period.

Easter Brunch

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boswell were hosts at an Easter brunch in the patio at their Onrado Ave. home last Sunday morning.

Guests were seated at a table centered with an Easter arrangement of colored eggs, bunnies and chicks.

Enjoying the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Boswell were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hadler and Sharon Lee of Redondo, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney and daughter Margo, Jack Hudson and Jack Pugsley of West Hollywood.

Newton PTA

The regular monthly meeting of the Newton PTA will be held this evening, April 25, at Newton School cafeteria, at 8 p.m. Mrs. D. C. Robbins will give the introduction message.

Highlight of the meeting will be election of officers for the 1957-58 season. Plans for a Silver Tea to welcome new parents will be discussed. The tea is scheduled for May 2 from 2 to 4 in the cafeteria. Guest speaker for this evening's meeting will be Lt. D. C. Cook of the Police, who will talk on "Narcotics." Hostesses are the 5th and 6th grade mothers.

Exchange Students Feted At Phi Beta Phi Meeting

Monthly meeting of the South Bay Phi Beta Phi alumnae was held April 9 at the home of its president, Mrs. Eugene Byrd, 529 Via la Selva. Honored guests were three exchange students from the American Field Service who are currently residing in the peninsula area. They were Denis Gemici of Turkey, Christina Bjercke of Denmark and Carol Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Drake, 2748 Via Campesina, who spent a summer in Greece under the auspices of AFS.

GARWOOD FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Garwood, 630 Calle de Arboles, were hosts for a family gathering on Easter Sunday. Yellow chicks and Easter eggs were used as centerpiece decorations for the dinner table. Their guests included Mr. Garwood's mother, Mrs. Helen Garwood; his sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Byrd and their sons, Stephen and Ronnie. Joining in the celebration were the Garwoods' children, Kimmy, Leann and Roy.

SQUARE DANCE

Mariners Square Dance Club of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Redondo Beach will hold a dance at El Retiro Park Saturday evening, April 17, from 8 until 11:30. Bob Galbraith will be the guest caller. Hosts for the evening are Pete and Jane Mathews.

RUMMAGE SALE

Mothers' Circle of Job's Daughters, Lomita Bethel, will hold a rummage sale on May 10 at the House of Rummage, 1142 S. Pacific, San Pedro. Anyone wishing pickup service may call Mrs. Buzan, 1707 W. 248th St., Lomita.

their countries and customs. A question and answer period followed. The Phi Beta Phi alumnae give financial support to the American Field Service every year.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Byrd at the dessert luncheon which followed were Mrs. Gerry Perry, 111 Paseo de la Playa, and George Merrick of Manhattan Beach.

HOUSEGUESTS

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf were Mrs. Lela Smith of Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Carrioco of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Howry of Blue Jay, Calif., and David and Charles Howry of Oakland.

Principal To Address Foundation

Mrs. Dorothy B. Carr, principal of Harlan Shoemaker School in San Pedro, will be the guest speaker at the next general meeting of the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation to be held Thursday evening, April 25 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Tobarman Settlement House, 131 N. Grand Ave., San Pedro. Mrs. Dorothy Carr will speak on the "Exceptional Child."

Also on the agenda, will be the report given by Mrs. Gene Hollander on the Foundation's training center and school activities, both present and future.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting and to see and hear firsthand what the Foundation is doing to maintain and operate the training center and school for the mentally retarded children of the Harbor Area. Refreshments will be served.
